Books at Home

Research has shown the more books in a home for children the more fluid and stronger a reader a child becomes. This year we are working on reading 40 books during the school year. Even though we go to the library children who have ownership of books develop a greater appreciation of books. Also, one of the largest predictors for a child to start and finish reading a book is if they picked it out themselves.

Class Book

We will be reading Charlotte's Web as a class this year. This book has a focus on kindness and friendship. Please order it for your child, it is only $2, along with your other books. You can send money to school or order online at www.scholastic.com click on Parents tab, then follow instructions.
